Keyboard Discoveries[®]

(August 13 - October 6, 2012)

What: Keyboard Discoveries[®] is an 8-week group piano class where children learn the fundamentals of music notation and how to play introductory pieces on the piano. No previous experience or skills are necessary. This class is an excellent opportunity to test your child's interest in the piano and prepare for private lessons. All children PK- K are welcome and need not own a piano. The class will culminate with a "mini-recital" at the end of the 8 weeks. Parents are welcome to sit in on classes.

Where: Country Day School of Arlington, 1105 Randoll Mill Rd, Arlington, TX 76012

When: Classes meet once a week for 30 minutes and begin the week of August 13, 2012. Classes will be arranged during school hours. (Date/ time TBA). Children will be grouped according to age. Class size is limited to 6 students.

Who: Angela Favazza, piano instructor

Cost: $120 (Tuition $105 + Registration Fee $15); all music books and supplies included

Registration Deadline: August 1, 2012
