

Keyboard Discoveries[®]

What: Keyboard Discoveries[®] is an 8-week group piano class where children learn the fundamentals of music notation and how to play introductory pieces on the piano. No previous experience or skills are necessary. This class is an excellent opportunity to test your child's interest in the piano and prepare for private lessons. Children ages 4-7 are welcome and need not own a piano. The class will culminate with a "mini-recital" at the end of the 8 weeks. Parents are welcome to sit in on classes.

When: Classes meet Friday afternoons for 30 minutes and will be arranged according to student availability. Children will be grouped according to age with class size not to exceed 6 students.

Who: Angela Favazza, piano instructor (see bio on reverse side).

Cost: $110 for 8 weeks beginning Friday, August 26th. (Tuition $95 + Registration Fee $15); all music books and supplies included.
